Room 1 and 2 Education Outside The Classroom Day

When Wednesday 11 March 9.15 am – 2.30 pm
Where Caroline Bay / CBay Aquatic Centre
Why The benefits of EOTC are many!

Our experience at Caroline Bay will include:

- learning about the environment in our local area and developing a respect for the environment
- developing our class culture and encouraging positive relationships between students, parents and teachers
- opportunities to experience success when working in a group to achieve a challenge
- opportunities for students to shine in different areas of the curriculum.
- opportunities to use our Key Competencies.

Itinerary

8.45 am Meet at school, safety talk and bag inspections
9.15 am Depart by bus for Richmond Street
9.30 am Arrive Cnr Westcott and Pacific St (fence stile).
Tramp to Caroline Bay via Dashing Rocks walkway.
10.15 am Arrive Caroline Bay playground - morning tea and play
10.30 am Walk to the beach, look for evidence of penguins and play.

12.00 pm Lunch / Playground

1.00 pm Walk to CBay

1.30 pm Swim at CBay

2.30 pm Parents - please pick up your child from the pool and take home.

Room 1 and 2 would love the assistance of some parent help to supervise the activities during the day, especially with swimming. We would really like your help in the pool by swimming and having fun with the students in the water.

We are sorry but this trip would not be suitable for preschoolers.
